Note.—All bidders are requested to extend the amount of their bids for each article, and exhibit the total amount of each bid.

The periods and quantities of each delivery at those posts where they are not specified, will be, one-fourth 1st June, 1st September, 1st December, 1850, and 1st March, 1851.

The hogs of which the pork is packed to be fattened on corn, and each hog to weigh not less than two hundred pounds, excluding the feet, legs, ears, and snout. Side pieces may be substituted for the hams. The pork is to be first salted with Turk's Island salt, and then carefully packed with the same article, in pieces not exceeding eight pounds each.

Island salt, and then carefully packed with the same article, in pieces not exceeding eight pounds each.

When the packing has been completed, the contractor must furnish to this office a certificate from the packer that the pork has been so salted and packed. The pork is to be contained in seasoned heart of white oak barrels, full hooped; the beans and salt in barrels, and the soap and candles in strong boxes, of convenient size for transportation.

Salt will only be received by measurement of thirty-two quarts to the bushel. The candles to have cotton wicks. The provisions for St. Peter's and Fort Gaines must pass St. Louis for their ultimate destination, in the first week of April, 1850; and the stores for Fort Gaines must pass St. Peter's by the lst June, 1850. A failure in this particular will be considered a breach of contract, and the Department will be authorized to purchase to supply these posts. The provisions will be inspected at the time and place of delivery, and all expenses to be paid by contractors until they are deposited at such store-houses as may be designated by the agents of the Department. The Commissary General reserves the privilege of increasing or diminishing the quantities, or of dispensing with any or all articles required at any post, at any time before entering into contract; and also of increasing or reducing the quantities of each delivery one-third subsequent to contract, on giving sixty days' previous notice.

Bidders, not heretofore contractors, are required to accompany their proposals with evidence of their subside to the proposals will not be acted on.

Advances cannot be made in any case, and evidence of inspection and full delivery will be required at this of the proposals will not be acted on.

TO INVENTORS.

THE SUBSCRIBERS offer their services to persons wishing to obtain patents in the United States or in foreign countries, and will prepare specifications and drawings, and take all necessary steps to secure a patent.

From their long experience as practical mechanics, added to a thorough knowledge of the Patent Law and acquaintance with the details connected with the business of the Patent Office, they trust they will be able to give satisfaction to their employers, both in the clearness and precision of their specifications, and in the promptness and ability with which they transact all business entrusted to them.

Persons residing at a distance may procure all necessary information, have their business transacted, and obtain a patent, by writing to the subscribers, without incurring the expense of a personal attendance at Washington.

Models can be sent with perfect safety by the ex-

Rough sketches and descriptions can be sent by mail.

For evidence of their competence and integrity, they would respectfully refer to all those for whom they have transacted business.

Letters must be postpaid.

Nouvelle Period avec la Collaboration des Sommites Lâtteraires et Scientifiques, de la France et des pays Etrangers.

Published onthe first and fifteenth of every month. Each number contains 176 pages, 8vo., at $12 50 per annum.

*The Revue des Deux Mondes has been formed for the purpose of establishing an intercourse in the intellectual pursuits the most followed between of distinguished men of Europe and America. It is proposed in this collection to give a prominent place to the affairs of the American Union, to the labors of its politicians, and to the Literary and Scientific publications of its Authors. The Revue des Deux Mondes now makes a public appeal to American Authors and Editors, by sending to it, through Mr. Punnam, of New York, a copy of each of their publications. The Revue is in a better position than an any other organ in Europe to serve as in intellectual link between the Old and the New World, which has a Editors and Consular Corps. Leach number of the Revue, in addition to its articles signed by the first names of France, contains, under the title of "Chronique de la Quinzaine," a historical summary of the Diplomatic and Consular Corps. Each number of the Revue, in addition to its articles world, which has a Editors of the political world, which will certainly be, for the American, the most faithful picture of the European movements.
